by Waters of the River Euphrates.

the work of restoring the prosperity of Mesopotamia, once the granary of the world, by means of irrigation is described in a Constantinople dis-patch to the London Daily Mail Sir William Wilcocks, who designed the works for the Turkish government, often asserted that the Garden of Eden once flourished in the district between Babylon and Bagdad. The formal opening of the Euphrates Barrage takes place on Friday. The Barrage, which is at Hindia, about 47 miles north of Bagdad, is the first completed part of the extensive ir-rigation works undertaken by the 1.42 Young Turks government for the im-provement of Mosopotamia. The construction was intrusted in February, 1911, to Sir John Jackson. The Earrage consists of masonry piers with thirty-six openings fitted with sluices to hold the water to the desired level. There is also a navigation lock for barge traffic.

Below the main barrage is a subsidiary one constructed with a lock of the same size. The water level can be raised to 16 1-2 feet, enabling 1.00 an extensive area of rich land to be Upstream the ancient Hilla a chan-

The works still remaining to complete the 2.34 scheme of converting the country 5.32 into a second Egypt and restoring the ancient granary to the empire. able among the uncompleted works is the Habbania escape, which will allow the surplus floods to flow into 3.55 an adjacent lake, thence to a large natural depression, thus avoiding the submarsion of the area between the Euphrates and the Bagdad

RELICS OF AARON BURR HOUSE FOUND

New York, Dec. 11.—Remnants of Aaron Rurr's famous Richmond hill house are being uncovered by wreckers who are tearing down some ancient buildings on the east side of Varick street in order to widen the thoroughfare. The old Burr place, in its later years, was used as a theater and at one time rose to the dignitive of the property of the control of the contr Mesopotamia to Be Irrigated hity of an opera house. Years ago, it passed the uses of a stable. It is this structure that is now being torn down, revealing fresco work which is said to have formed a part of the old theater decorations.

An old resident of the vicinity ex-hibits a play bill of the old theater when it was known as Miss Nelson's theater, in 1836. Miss Annette Hawley Nelson was a popular actressmanager there for many years. In contrast to present prices and opening hours, the bill shows that performances began then as early as 7 o clock, while prices for the best box seats were only fifty cents.
